NETWORKING

You are invited to become a charter member of the NIRI Banking Industry Roundtable. The Roundtable is a community where you can connect with IR peers in the banking field — virtually, in periodic web-based exchanges and in person. Network in real-time to exchange “best practices” and meet goals through access to industry-specific resources.

What you want — when you need it!

Exclusivity — only IROs actively engaged in the banking field may join.

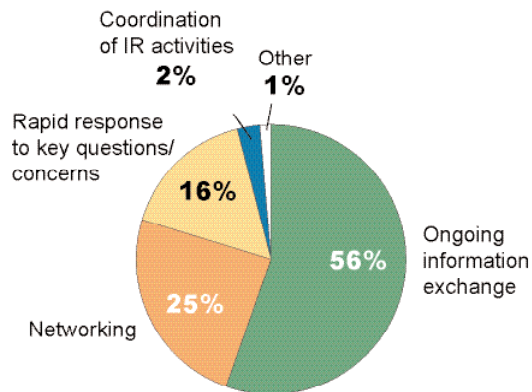

Accessibility — tap into the NIRI Banking Industry Roundtable online community to share ideas, information and query members on issues important to you.

Networking opportunities — in real-time via online resources, during quarterly webcasts and in person at the NIRI Annual Conference.

Professional development programs — advance notice and invitation to NIRI Banking events.

Leadership and volunteer opportunities — recommend change that will improve timeliness and productivity within IR and the Banking community.

The primary reason I would join an industry roundtable

“IROs in the banking industry are confronted with unique and specialized issues. The Roundtable provides an ideal forum to connect by sharing ideas and experiences. This fresh perspective helps us make good judgments and be more effective.”

Thomas Richlovsky
Senior Vice President and Treasurer
National City Corporation
