LEADERSHIP EDUCATION NETWORKING

You are invited to become a charter member of the NIRI BioPharma Industry Roundtable. The Roundtable is a community where you can connect with IR peers in the biopharmaceutical field — virtually, in periodic web-based exchanges and in person. Network in real-time to exchange “best practices” and meet goals through access to industry-specific resources.

What you want — when you need it!

Exclusivity — only IROs actively engaged in the biopharmaceutical field may join.

Accessibility — tap into BioPharma members-only page on the NIRI web site to share ideas, information and query members on issues important to you.

Networking opportunities — in real-time via online resources, during quarterly webcasts and in person at the NIRI Annual Conference.

Professional development programs — advance notice and invitation to NIRI BioPharma events.

Leadership and volunteer opportunities — recommend change that will improve timeliness and productivity within IR and the BioPharma community.

The primary reason I would join an industry roundtable

“Biotech is an idiosyncratic industry. I need a program, above and beyond networking, where IROs learn from each other. I want information that helps me become more effective in the biopharma space.”
